Geist should be great but unfortunately it's only good. Reading it is frustrating because you can see how brilliant it could have been. It's a great concept but there's just so much about it that seems half baked. The game doesn't supply you with enough strong examples, with some sections being maddeningly vague.

The original edition had a number of errors and other missing information, so a "Geist 1.1" edition was released in PDF and print on April 30, 2012, replacing the original edition. It's a first for this sort of version editing, where the existing file is edited rather than a new edition being released.
