Differentiating Instruction using Multiple Intelligences in the Elementary School Classroom: A Literature Review by Suzanna Gangi A Research Paper

Differentiating Instruction using Multiple Intelligences

An elementary school is the main point of delivery of primary education in the United States, for children between the ages of 4-11 and coming between pre-kindergarten and secondary education.. In 2001, there were 92,858 elementary schools (68,173 public, 24,685 private) in the United States, a figure which includes all schools that teach students from grade one through grade eight.
