The Debate. I have found that the heated and often demeaning dialogue between well-meaning individuals and groups usually concerns the interpretation of three main events listed in the early chapters of the Book of Genesis.

The Stones Cry Out - Geology and the Bible: Updated

"Bosom of Abraham" refers to the place of comfort in the Biblical Sheol (or Hades in the Greek Septuagint version of the Hebrew scriptures from around 200 BC, and therefore so described in the New Testament) where the righteous dead await Judgment Day.

A straw man is a common form of argument and is an informal fallacy based on giving the impression of refuting an opponent's argument, while actually refuting an argument that was not presented by that opponent. One who engages in this fallacy is said to be "attacking a straw man." The typical straw man argument creates the illusion of having completely refuted or defeated an opponent's ...
