

the essence of personality pdf

In philosophy, essence is the property or set of properties that make an entity or substance what it fundamentally is, and which it has by necessity, and without which it loses its identity. Essence is contrasted with accident: a property that the entity or substance has contingently, without which the substance can still retain its identity. The concept originates rigorously with Aristotle ...

Sartre's view. The Sartrean claim is best understood in contrast to an established principle of metaphysics [dubious â€“ discuss] that essence precedes existence, i.e. a typical claim for this traditional thesis would be that man is essentially selfish, or that he is a rational being.. To Sartre, "existence precedes essence" means that a personality is not built over a previously designed ...
