A famine is a widespread scarcity of food, caused by several factors including war, inflation, crop failure, population imbalance, or government policies. This phenomenon is usually accompanied or followed by regional malnutrition, starvation, epidemic, and increased mortality. Every inhabited continent in the world has experienced a period of famine throughout history.

On June 21, the House passed the Agriculture Committee's (the Committee) farm bill, which includes nutrition provisions that would increase food insecurity and hardship. By adopting harmful amendments during floor debate in May, the House made the bill that ultimately passed even worse than the version the Committee originally introduced (see Appendix I).

A civilian is "a person who is not a member of the military". While some American police and firefighter organizations call those outside of their groups as civilian, this is from unofficial and informal grouping, the same way a professional in one field may informally call those not in their field as "civilians". For legal definitions and the purpose of this article, civilians are those ...
